To

C. S. Balasundaram Iyengar
Secretary to Government of Mysore
General and Revenue Department

Most Respected and Honored Sir,

Having learnt that the Chief Court of Mysore had recommended to Government to provide me with a suitable appointment owing to the abolition of the District and Sessions Court-Bangalore Division where I am now employed as acting Sheristedar, I humbly beg to bring the following few lines to your Honor's kind consideration.

I passed the B.A. and the B.L. Degree Examination of the University of Madras in the 2nd class and also the Revenue Examination held in this Province ranked into Government Service on 26th July 1900 and I have put in nearly five years' service and held the permanent appointment of Head clerk on Rs 50/- to which I was appointed in June 1904 and I am now acting as Sheristedar of the District Court-Bangalore Division on Rs 100/-, this acting appointment was sanctioned by Government in its proceedings no: J 2640-41
Cts 174-06-4.

Mr. S. Venkataravanadhan Iyengar, when he presided over the District Court-Bangalore Division, had recommended me for the post of Munsiff. An extract from my Service Roll written below (with the permission of Mr. T. Paramasiva Iyer, District Judge) contains the certificates given by various officers under whom I served

In November last, when I applied for the post of Head Munshi on Rs70, of the District Court Chamraja Durbar, Mr. T. Narasimha Iyer forwarded the application with the following recommendation. "Forwarded for favourable consideration. Vaidesvara Iyer is an obedient intelligent and useful hand and well deserves even a better appointment." He has, in his proposals for providing the officials thrown out by the abolition of the District Court, recommended to the Chief Court to the following effect. "Vaidesvara Iyer who is now the acting Sheristedar of this court is a law graduate and a steady well-behaved youth and deserves to be provided for on the occurrence of a suitable vacancy." In the list of persons eligible for the post of Deputy amildar submitted during the last two years, he has included my name.

In June 1906, when I applied to the Secretary to the Government of Mysore for the post of Head clerk or Sheristedar in any of the Deputy Commissioners' Offices in the Province I was given an endorsement by the Revenue Commissioner to whom the application was forwarded, to the effect that there were no vacancies.

Under these circumstances I humbly beg to request that your Honour will be pleased to provide me with a suitable appointment either in your Office or in any of the District Offices in the Province or in any other place.

For this act of kindness, I shall ever be grateful.

I beg to remain,
Most Respected and Honored Sir,
Your most Obedient Servant
